

VALID

Please support VALID's mission by renewing your membership

VALID is committed to the vision of an Australian nation in which people with a disability are empowered to exercise their rights, as human beings and as citizens, in accordance with the Victorian Charter on Human Rights and Responsibilities, the Disability Act 2006 and the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities.

MISSION

The mission of the VALID Advocacy Service is to protect and defend the human rights of people with an intellectual disability, and to champion their rights as citizens to: Community Presence, Choice, Respect, Community Participation and Self Determination

AIMS

VALID aims to empower individuals with intellectual disability to:

- Exert control and influence over the decisions and choices which affect their lives
- Inform and influence the policies, processes and practices of disability service agencies, governments and other authorities
- Exercise their human rights and citizenship status within their local communities

VALID Membership

Being a VALID Member supports our work within Victoria. It links you into VALID's state-wide community and through Inclusion Australia, both national and international communities. Stay informed through our newsletters and bulletins, as well as our various online discussions, forums, conferences, meetings and campaigns.

VALID membership also entitles you to a 10% discount on VALID resources and events including registration costs for the Having a Say conference.
