

Invite you to join the

Bairnsdale Families Peer Group

Peer Family Groups provide peer support and encouragement for families who have a person with disability to:

- Network with other people experiencing the same situations, needs and issues.
- Learn to make NDIS supports work to achieve the personal goals of their family member and to empower the family member to make more decisions and choices
- Explore ways their family member can make relationships and friendships that empower and create confidence
- Explore ways to increase opportunities for recreation, work, and community participation for their family member
