

Having a Say presents the Barbara Donovan & Sarah Guilfoil Art Competition

28th – 30th January 2025

Deakin University, Waterfront, Geelong

Conference Theme: Our Lives, Our Voices!

People with disabilities have shared a lot about their lives in the last few years.

Our voices have been put on record in reports, reviews and consultations.

But have we really been heard?

Will our voices actually make a difference?

Will we continue to be listened to as things change?

Is support going to be safer?

Will we be able to live ordinary lives like others – holding jobs, living with those we want to, enjoying our interests and being part of our communities?

They're our lives, and we want our voices to be really listened to... not just recorded but truly respected!

Thank you to the sponsor of the Art Competition
the Victorian Senior Practitioner.

Barbara Donovan & Sarah Guilfoil Art Competition

Who can enter the competition?

- Three prizes will be awarded to people registered to attend the HaS conference
- Two prizes will be awarded to non-registered conference artists
- Entry is available only to people with a disability

Conditions of Entry

- The artwork is to be based on the conference theme: Our Lives, Our Voices!
- Only one entry per person
- We accept paintings and drawings but not photographs
- Put your name and contact details on the back of your artwork
- Entries will not be accepted at the Conference
- Artwork is to be approximately A3 size (NO larger than 40cm x 50cm)
Please note: Large works of art may be photocopied and displayed in A3 format.
- You release VALID from liability for any loss or damage in relation to your artwork
- The prize money is a 'payment', so all winning artworks become the property of the conference sponsor (VSP) and the winning artists agree to give the Senior Practitioner exclusive rights to use the artwork in their publicity and promotional materials – for example, brochures, newsletters, etc.
- Artists give VALID permission to use their artwork in VALID publicity and promotional material and also to promote the art competition for future Having a Say Conferences
- VALID staff, family members and organisers of the Having a Say Conference, including the Local Reference Committee, are not permitted to enter the competition but may display their artwork

About Barbara Donovan & Sarah Guilfoil

The Art Competition has been named in memory of Barbara Donovan who was a Life Member of VALID and other Geelong organisations. She volunteered at the Having a Say conference for over 10 years and worked for people with disabilities over the last 50 years. Sadly, Barbara's daughter Sarah Guilfoil passed away in May 2020. Sarah has won the Art Competition several times. The HaS Art Competition is now named in remembrance of both Barbara and Sarah.

Sponsor

Thank you to the Victorian Senior Practitioner for their continued support of the Art Competition. Under the Disability Act 2006 (Vic), the Victorian Senior Practitioner's role is to protect people with disability and make sure staff and services provide good quality support.

Prizes

The five winning entries selected will receive a cash prize and certificate:

1. Conference delegates - The three winning entries will be awarded a cash prize of $600 and a certificate
2. Non conference entry - The two winning entries will receive a cash prize of $350 and a certificate
