

Led by lived experience. Focused on real change.

Webinar 1: From Lived Experience to Leadership

Date: Thursday 7 May

Time: 12:00pm – 1:00pm

VALID is launching a free new webinar series called VALID Conversations. VALID Conversations is for people with disability, families, and supporters. We will talk about real experiences and common issues. We will have guest speakers with lived experience at every webinar.

The first webinar is called 'From Lived Experience to Leadership'. We will look at how people with disability use their experiences to be leaders.

We will have three guests; VALID Chair William Ward-Boas, Author and Special Olympics Australia leader Ben Haack and Self advocate and community leader Judy Huett. As well as our host John McKenna. They will talk about the importance of lived experience in creating change in our communities.

How to register and join the webinar

The webinar series will be hosted on Zoom. For the first webinar click or tap on this VALID Conversations Registration Link.

If you have any questions about the webinar please contact the VALID Conversations team validconversations@valid.org.au.