

Application for Associate Membership

VALID has some rules that must be followed.

These rules are called the Constitution.

The Constitution says that any person or group that supports what VALID want to do (VALID's purposes) can ask to become an Associate Member of VALID.

Being an Associate Member of VALID means you agree with VALID purposes.

Being an Associate Member of VALID is free.

VALID's Purposes are:

- (a) to strengthen and promote the human rights of people with intellectual disability, including in relation to inclusion, access, employment, health, education and housing;
- (b) to provide support to the family and carer networks of people with intellectual disability in these pursuits.

This means that VALID wants to:

1. make sure that people with intellectual disability's have their human rights supported in things like:
 - Being part of their community
 - Getting a job
 - Health places like hospitals and doctors' offices
 - Being able to learn new things
 - Choosing where to live
2. Give support to the family and carers of people with a disability in these things, when they need it.

If you want to be an Associate Member of VALID, please fill out this form.

You can email it to: info@valid.org.au or post it to 1/144 Langridge Street, Collingwood VIC 3066.
